WHY PRIORITIZE VISION & INSPIRED ACTION?

Ever wonder the value of vision? Or why it matters for the long run? Legacy isn't something we leave when we're dead and gone. We leave it every time we step out of a room; and vision is what drives our steps. Learn the power of your legacy (what you leave) and vision (what guides your steps) and how to cause fulfillment every step of the way by keeping these in sync.

SELL WITHOUT SELLING – INVITE YOUR CUSTOMERS INTO YOUR STORY

How do so many people make it look easy? They've learned how to sell without selling because they know their story and instead of a sales pitch, they share from the soul. Learn how to write your story, its impact to attract your ideal client and to invite customers in.

THE POWER OF KNOWING WHAT YOU WANT

In a world that knows what it doesn't want, what if we put that exact same attention on what we do want and knew how to amplify it? Gain clarity through this workshop-style experience to know what you want and build a solid foundation and how to apply it to life.

THE TRANSFORMATIVE POWER OF LANGUAGE

Based on her best-selling book, Mary Lyn walks through the key components to change your language and change your life. Why do we talk like we do? Where does it come from? Learn why and how to take steps to shift and lift every conversation and get in the same language to move forward even with our differences.

HOME PRACTICE – TRANSITION AS TREASURE

In this heartfelt conversation, you'll hear Mary Lyn's personal journey of marriage, motherhood, building business, losing business, moving beyond betrayal, and the treasure found in the valley. Hear her three keys that sweat, tears and passion can create; and above all, why we do it and must create them individually. Home sees the best and the worst of us. If we can get the importance of home, we get our whole life. Be inspired to move beyond past hurts, wounds and losses and into what is always waiting for us when we let go. And along the way, allowing home to become the greatest practice.
